Buffalo (5-1) vs. Northern Illinois (3-2)

Records: Buffalo is 5-1 and coming off a six-champion performance at the UB Open on Dec. 30. Northern Illinois is 3-2 and coming off a sixth-place finish at Midlands, the team's best finish since 1971. The Huskies are currently ranked 22nd in the nation in the USA Today/NWCA/InterMat poll.

Coaches: Buffalo coach Jim Beichner (Clarion, 1987) has amassed a 96-61-2 record in 11 years. Northern Illinois coach Dave Grant (Northern Iowa, 1985) is 82-69-3 in nine years.

On Deck: Buffalo will get nine days off before returning to the mats with a dual meet against the WrestlingReport.com's 30th-ranked UNC-Greensboro on Sunday, Jan. 15 at 1:00 pm. Northern Illinois moves on to the National Duals, which take place on Jan. 14 and Jan. 15 at Ceder Falls, IA.

About the Meet

Buffalo heads into tonight's Mid-American Conference season-opening meet with Northern Illinois looking to upend the nationally-ranked Huskies for the first time since 2000-01. The Bulls also look to stop a four-meet losing skid to the Huskies and get revenge for last season's slim five-point loss that came down to the final match at 133 pounds, with NCAA qualifier Sam Hiatt beating Mark Budd, 8-0.

Northern Illinois is the second nationally-ranked opponent Buffalo has faced this season, with 18th-ranked Edinboro besting the Bulls, 20-13 on Dec. 9. The Huskies defeated 17th-ranked Wisconsin, 18-17, on Dec. 11 to give the Badgers their only blemish this season. The teams were ranked tied for second in the MAC's preseason Coaches' Poll.

Series History

Northern Illinois holds a 4-2 advantage in the all-time series, having won the last four matches in a row. However, last year's meet at the Buckeye Duals in Columbus, OH, came down to the final match, with the Huskies squeaking by with a 20-15 victory on Jan. 8, 2005.

Scouting The Huskies

The Huskies recently posted their best finish at the prestigious Midlands tournament since 1971 as seven wrestlers placed and the team took sixth at the 60-team tournament.

The Huskies finished second at the 2005 MAC Championship, garnering four NCAA qualifiers, three of which are still on this year's squad.

Sophomore 125-pounder Pat Castillo led the way with a second-place finish, as he upset 2005 MAC Champion Luke Smith of Central Michigan in the semifinals.

Senior Josh Wooten, a returning MAC Champion and NCAA qualifier, earned a fourth-place finish at 141 pounds. Junior Joe Sapp took sixth at heavyweight and juniors Andy Hiatt (133 pounds) and 2005 NCAA Qualifier Johnny Galloway (165 pounds) each took seventh.

Freshman Justin Metcalfe (149 pounds) and sophomore Derek Hunsinger (197 pounds) each took eighth at the event. Junior Mike Grimes (149 pounds), a NCAA Qualifier in 2005, is also 14-4 this season.

Freshman Duke Birk (184 pounds) is one of only three wrestlers left in the Mid-American Conference, along with Buffalo's Kyle Cerminara and Central Michigan's Wynn Michalek to still not have a loss, having run a 10-0 record this year.

The Huskies have four wrestlers in the latest NWCA/InterMat/NWMA rankings, with Wooten ninth at 141 pounds, Grimes eighth at 149 pounds, sophomore Danny Burk 20th at 174 pounds, and Sapp 20th at heavyweight.

Last Time: Northern Illinois 20, Buffalo 15

JANUARY 8, 2005 • ST. JOHN ARENA • COLOMBUS, OH

COLUMBUS, OH - Buffalo (0-5 overall, 0-1 MAC) opened the Buckeye Duals with a tough loss to Northern Illinois at St. John Arena. The Huskies jumped out to a 6-0 lead with wins at 141 and 149 pounds before freshman Scott Rendos tied the score by pinning Alex Nelson at 157 pounds.

Northern Illinois regained the lead by winning the next two matches, as Johnny Galloway earned a 12-2 major decision on freshman Mickey Moran at 165 and Danny Burke posted a 4-0 win against freshman Nate Rock at 174, to take a 13-6 lead at the halfway mark.

Buffalo responded well, as junior Garrett Hicks (184 pounds) and Harold Sherrell (197 pounds) earned decisions to close the gap to one point at 13-12.

Joe Sapp took the wind out of Buffalo's sails in the heavyweight match, though, earning a 5-4 decision over sophomore Jeff Parker, his lone loss of the day, giving the Huskies a 16-12 lead.

Mark McKnight (125 pounds) won the ninth match of the meet, 8-3 over Chad Vandervier, keeping the meet a one-point affair moving into the tenth match. The win was also McKnight's 50th of his career, becoming the fastest non-transfer to reach the mark in UB's MAC era.

In the final match, Sam Hiatt, ranked 18th in the nation by WrestlingMall.com, scored a major decision over sophomore Mark Budd (133 pounds), 8-0, to complete the 20-15 victory for the Huskies.

REACHING NEW HIGHS

Senior Harold Sherrell won three NCAA matches at the UB Open en route to his third individual title of the season Friday. The heavyweight has a 22-4 record, which already ties his career-high for wins in a season, set in 2004-05, when he went 22-18 wrestling at 197 pounds. The Liverpool High product is 68-54 (.557) in his career. He is five wins away from reaching the top 15 in career wins in school history.

THE MAGIC NUMBER

Head coach Jim Beichner has coached at least four grapplers to 20-win seasons in each of Buffalo's first six seasons of competition in the MAC. He reached the plateau before the halfway mark of the school's seventh season in the conference, as Kyle Cerminara leads the conference with 24 wins and Mark Budd and Harold Sherrell are nipping on his heels with 22 wins. Mickey Moran also has 20 wins.

STREAKING

Senior Kyle Cerminara has won 24 straight matches, tying the school record set by John Stutzman in 1996-97. This is the second record of Stutzman's that the 2004 All-American has chased down this year, already breaking Stutzman's mark of 135 career dual meet takedowns, with Cerminara now owning the school-record of 163.

Cerminara, who actually has won 32 matches in a row dating back to his Niagara and UB Open championships while redshirting in 2004, has wrestled only 24 matches against NCAA opponents this season, making his official record 24-0, despite winning 26 matches this season. He defeated Mount Union's Chris Hart by injury default after holding a 10-3 lead in the second period to tie the record at the UB Open.

Cerminara is not the only UB wrestler to be in the process of a win streak, as six wrestlers have posted wins in at least their last five matches, although some of wins are against junior college wrestlers, which do not count on their official records.

Wrestler	Weight	Official Streak	Unofficial Streak
Kyle Cerminara	197	24	32
Harold Sherrell	HWT	6	7
Pat Lloyd	149	5	5
Mickey Moran	165	4	7
Mark Budd	133	4	6
Garrett Hicks	184	4	6

UNGRACIOUS HOSTS

Buffalo dominated its own Third Annual UB Open on Dec. 30, as it won six weight classes and placed 15 wrestlers at the non-scoring event. Senior Kyle Cerminara won his third straight title at 197 pounds while senior Garrett Hicks (184 pounds) and juniors Mark Budd (133 pounds) and Pat Lloyd (149 pounds) won their second titles. Senior Harold Sherrell (Heavyweight) and sophomore Mickey Moran (165 pounds) won their first titles. Junior John Cummings (157 pounds) and senior Greg Thomas (Heavyweight), wrestling unattached, each took second. Sophomore Nate Rock (174 pounds), senior Cliff Smith (141 pounds) and freshman Ricky Scott (184 pounds), wrestling unattached, took third. Freshman Jason Hilliard (149 pounds) took fourth, juniors Mike Shannon (141 pounds) and Jake Blowers (165 pounds) took fifth and freshman Dan Bishop (125 pounds) took sixth.

REGIONAL POWERS

Six Buffalo wrestlers earned rankings in the latest WrestlingReport.com Atlantic Region rankings, with senior Kyle Cerminara leading the way with a ranking of first at 197 pounds. Sophomore Mickey Moran (165 pounds) and junior Mark Budd (133 pounds) each rank sixth. Sophomore Dana Gingerich (141 pounds) is 13th, senior Harold Sherrell (Heavyweight) is 14th and senior Garrett Hicks (184 pounds) is 17th.

2005-06 UNIVERSITY AT BUFFALO WRESTLING

MAC TRUCKS

Junior John Cummings became the fifth UB wrestler to earn the Mid-American Conference's Wrestler of the Week award after his two-pin performance against Appalachian State and Mercyhurst, the league announced Dec. 27.

Buffalo posted four straight MAC Wrestler of the Week awards from Nov. 22-Dec. 13. Junior Mark Budd earned the fourth honor after beating Division 1's top-ranked Shawn Bunch of Edinboro, 6-4, to pick up the award on Dec. 13.

Mickey Moran picked up his first conference accolade on Nov. 22, as he earned the MAC Wrestler of the Week award. Moran went 3-0 at Buffalo's quad-meet on Nov. 19 to earn the award. Cerminara followed with his third career MAC Wrestler of the Week award on Nov. 29, as he posted two wins over nationally-ranked opponents to earn the Mat Town USA Invitational title at 197 pounds and also earned the Harris Lipetz Most Outstanding Wrestler at the tournament. Cerminara repeated the honor on Dec. 6 after winning the Las Vegas Invitational title at 197 pounds, defeating three nationally-ranked wrestlers and setting the school's career-record for wins in the process.

MAC Wrestler of the Week.....	Week
Mickey Moran	Nov. 22
Kyle Cerminara	Nov. 29
Kyle Cerminara	Dec. 6
Mark Budd.....	Dec. 13
John Cummings.....	Dec. 27

UNBEATEN

Senior Kyle Cerminara is one of only three wrestlers left in the MAC who is still undefeated, along with fellow 197-pounder Wynn Michalek of Central Michigan, ranked first in the latest NWCA/InterMat poll, and 174-pounder Duke Birk of Northern Illinois. Michalek is 18-0 and recently defeated 2005 NCAA Champion Jake Rosholt of Oklahoma State. Burk is 10-0.

PILING UP THE WINS

According to the Mid-American Conference weekly release, Buffalo's top five winners are also the top four in the conference. Senior Kyle Cerminara leads the conference with 24 wins with junior Mark Budd and senior Harold Sherrell nipping on his heels with 22. Sophomore Mickey Moran is tied for fourth with 20 with Eastern Michigan 125-pounder Sean Clair. Kent State's Aaron Miller and Clint Sponseller each have 19.

COMING ON STRONG

Junior John Cummings had a breakthrough day on Dec. 20, as he led the Bulls to two dual meet victories with two pins. The 157-pound two-time JuCo All-American at Nassau Community College had started his season 9-10, but he rebounded nicely by pinning Appalachian State's Ken Kepley in the first period and then rebounding from a 2-0 deficit to Division II's third-ranked Will Tedder of Mercyhurst by taking a 5-2 lead and then pinning the wrestler with five seconds left.

SHUTTING DOWN THE COMPETITION

After not earning a shutout in five seasons, Buffalo has already notched two dual meet shutouts this season, taking down Findlay, 36-0, on Nov. 19 and then beating Appalachian State, 35-0, on Dec. 20. The Bulls posted three shutouts during the 1999-2000 campaign, downing Binghamton, 45-0, Slippery Rock, 39-0 and Syracuse, 47-0.

THE HALF-CENTURY MARK

Junior Pat Lloyd won his 50th career match at the Las Vegas Invitational as he earned a 10-0 major decision against the Air Force's Matt Crippes on Dec. 2. The former New York State high school champ is 56-51 overall.

Junior Mark Budd and senior Garrett Hicks joined Lloyd with their 50th career wins with dual meet wins against Appalachian State on Dec. 20. Budd is 52-28 in his career and Hicks is 53-40.

2005-06 UNIVERSITY AT BUFFALO WRESTLING

THE RANKINGS KILLER

Junior Mark Budd has beaten both the Division I and Division II top-ranked wrestlers this season. He downed Findlay's Andy Uhl, 7-3, in a Nov. 19 dual meet, but it was Dec. 9's win against Edinboro's Shawn Bunch that will really turn heads, as the junior 133-pounder shocked Bunch with a 6-4 sudden victory decision at the War at the Shore. Budd, who is 22-3 this season, has beaten four Division I ranked opponents.

IT'S GOTTA START/STOP SOMEWHERE...

Mark Budd's win over the No. 1-ranked Shawn Bunch is the first time in the school's Division I era that a wrestler had beaten the top-ranked wrestler in the country. It also snapped Budd's three-match losing streak to Bunch, after he dropped two decisions by a 6-4 margin and one by a 6-3 score in 2003-04.

BUDDING ONTO THE NATIONAL SCENE

Junior Mark Budd earned his first national ranking in the WrestlingReport.com's Nov. 16 poll, ranking 30th, and has ascended ever since. Budd, who is second on the Bulls and in the Mid-American Conference with 21 wins this season, has won two tournament championships, winning the Slippery Rock Open and the Mat Town USA titles at 133 pounds. He rose to 17th in NWCA/InterMat's Jan. 3 poll and has earned a ranking of ninth in the latest W.I.N. Magazine poll and 15th in both TheWrestlingMall.com and WrestlingReport.com polls. He is 14th in the Amateur Wrestling News poll.

ROCK THE VOTE

Buffalo received votes in the latest USA Today/NWCA/InterMat poll, released on Dec. 13. This is the first time this year Buffalo has received honorable mention status in a national poll, along with nine other schools after the national poll of 25 teams. The Bulls also again received votes in the Jan. 3 poll.

ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST

After a 7-23 rookie season, sophomore Mickey Moran has already posted some remarkable numbers during his second season in Amherst, as he has started the year 20-5, following a 7-3 decision against the NWCA/InterMat/NWMA's 15th-ranked Deonte Penn on Dec. 9. Moran has posted three place finishes and has beaten two nationally-ranked opponents during this season. He has also found a slot on four national polls, ranking 26th in the WrestlingReport.com's poll, 20th in both TheWrestlingMall.com and Amateur Wrestling News polls and 17th in the W.I.N. Magazine poll.

TAKING THE SHORTEST PATH

Senior Kyle Cerminara took all the drama out of whether he was going to get the 16 wins he needed coming into this season to become UB's all-time career wins leader. He simply won his first 16 matches, beating Cal. St. Fullerton's Chris Chambers, 9-0, in the round of 16 at this weekend's Las Vegas Invitational, to cap off his run at Gary Cooper's (1998-2003) mark of 113 career wins. Cerminara now has 120 career wins.

TAKING THE FALL

In the past two years, sophomore Dana Gingerich has recorded 13 wins by fall to lead the Bulls, including both his wins at the Las Vegas Invitational. Last season, he won seven of 17 matches by fall to lead the team and finish ninth in the nation at 141 pounds. He leads the team with six falls this season.

LOVING LAS VEGAS

Chris Chambers was just one of five of the matches that senior Kyle Cerminara won on his way to becoming the first Buffalo wrestler to claim a Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational championship. Seeded second, Cerminara ran into three nationally-ranked wrestlers, beating the WrestlingReport.com's 29th-ranked Mark Thompson of The Citadel, 5-3, in the first round before beating Chambers. He then downed the NWCA/InterMat/NWMA's 13th-ranked Jeff Foust of Missouri, 7-1, in the quarterfinals before downing North Carolina State's Ryan Goodman, 8-6 in the semifinals.

In the finals, Cerminara beat Cornell's Jerry Rinaldi, ranked 10th in the NWCA/InterMat/NWMA poll, 5-3, as he earned two takedowns and had a riding time point while allowing Rinaldi only three escapes.

SIN CITY SUCCESS

The Bulls posted their best-ever finish at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational, as it finished 16th with 48.5 points in the 52-team tournament. Buffalo finished well ahead of its two Mid-American Conference rivals at the meet, as Ohio had 14 points to finish 37th and Eastern Michigan had 12.5 points to finish 42nd.

PINNING FOR POINTS

Even though Cerminara was the lone Buffalo wrestler to place at the Las Vegas Invitational, he was not the only one to contribute to the Bulls' 48.5 team points. The team was buoyed by a seven-pin performance, led by Dana Gingerich and Mark Budd, who each earned two falls in the tournament. Garrett Hicks, Mickey Moran and Harold Sherrell also each had pins at the tournament. Buffalo already has 30 falls as a team this year, after posting only 36 in 2004-05.

THE STUDENT HAS BECOME THE MASTER

Head coach Jim Beichner also led his team to a finish ahead of his old mentor, coach Rande Stottlemeyer, at the Las Vegas Invitational as Pittsburgh, who has held a national ranking this season, finished 24th with 32 points.

Beichner was an assistant under Stottlemeyer for seven years, even helping the Panthers to its first-ever National Duals appearance in 1994-95.

Beichner also helped to lead the Bulls past Clarion University, his alma mater and first coaching post after graduation, at the Mat Town USA Invitational, as the Bulls placed second at the tournament and the Golden Eagles finished eighth.

CAN WE STAY HERE?

Senior Harold Sherrell will take some very positive memories from Thomas Fieldhouse in Lock Haven. Besides winning the heavyweight title at the Mat Town USA Invitational this year, Sherrell also posted a second place finish in 2004, as he beat eventual All-American Phil Davis of Penn State and Minnesota's nationally-ranked Matt Koz to make the championship match at 197 pounds.

BEATING THE BEST

Buffalo wrestlers downed seven nationally-ranked wrestlers at the Mat Town USA Invitational, led by senior Kyle Cerminara, who beat two. Buffalo's 10 wrestlers to earn team points lost five matches to nationally-ranked opponents.

2005-06 UNIVERSITY AT BUFFALO WRESTLING

TURNING IT AROUND AT MAT TOWN

After placing 11th out of 13 teams, while only three wrestlers placed at Lock Haven's Mat Town USA Invitational in 2004, the University at Buffalo had a significant turnaround in an eight-team field in 2005. This time the Bulls placed in a tie for second with Oregon, racking up 138.5 points and four individual championships. Eleven Bulls placed at the event.

KUDOS FOR KYLE

Cerminara earned the Mat Town USA Invitational's Harris Lipetz Most Outstanding Wrestler award after he claimed the 197-pound title at the event.

The 2004 All-American downed InterMat/NWCA/NWMA eighth-ranked Brady Richardson of Indiana, 6-1, in the finals of the tournament and also beat Wrestling Report.com's 30th-ranked T.J. Morrison of Rider, 9-8, in the semifinals.

TAKING DOWN RECORDS

Senior Kyle Cerminara set the school record for dual meet takedowns on Nov. 19 as he took down Bloomsburg's Jesse Hasseman 35 seconds into the match for his 136th career takedown.

Ironically, Cerminara set the mark in a match against Bloomsburg, which is coached by John Stutzman, who set the record with 135 career takedowns from 1995-98.

THE FIGHTING GOOSE

Sophomore Mike Ragusa is just one win away from his 20th career win. A natural 165-pounder, Ragusa has posted a 3-1 mark in dual meets wrestling at 174 pounds this season. While teammate Mickey Moran has entered national polls at 165 pounds, Ragusa, who finished second to Moran's third at the Slippery Rock Open and then fourth to Moran's second at the Oklahoma Gold Classic, has started the season 16-8. Ragusa, who went 3-2 and placed fifth at the 2004 Oklahoma Gold Classic, looked to be headed toward a successful season before an LCL injury ended his season.

RETURNING THE FAVOR

Bloomsburg offered up Buffalo's only blemish at home last season, when the Huskies downed Buffalo, 21-9, in front of an Alumni Arena crowd on Nov. 18, 2004. It was also the first time in six meetings the Huskies had beaten the Bulls.

Buffalo returned the favor on Nov. 19, as it handed UB alum and first year head coach John Stutzman his first career dual meet loss with a 30-11 win after Bloomsburg shocked the USA Today/NWCA's 20th-ranked team, Pittsburgh, 17-16, earlier in the week.

A SOLID START

The Bulls had a notable change in direction at the 2005 Oklahoma Gold Classic as they finished fifth and had seven placewinners after finishing seventh and earning four placewinners in 2004.

Buffalo placed behind two teams that were ranked in the USA Today/NWCA poll, as Oklahoma (second) took first with 171 points and Pennsylvania (25th) was second with 166.

PRESEASON POLL TABS BULLS SECOND

After finishing sixth at last year's Mid-American Conference Championships with a lineup that featured three freshmen and five sophomores, the University at Buffalo wrestling team's year of experience is expected to pay off in 2005-06 as Buffalo was ranked tied for second with Northern Illinois according to the MAC Preseason Coaches' poll, the league office announced on Oct. 8.

Nov. 5, 2005 • Slippy Rock, PA Slippy Rock Open

SLIPPERY ROCK, PA - Seniors Kyle Cerminara and Harold Sherrell, and junior Mark Budd each won individual titles at the Slippy Rock Open at Morrow Field House, as action wrapped up late Saturday night.

Redshirting junior Jeff Parker, wrestling unattached, also advanced to the finals at heavyweight and was set to face Sherrell, but the match was forfeited after Parker suffered a cut above his eye in an earlier round.

Cerminara (197 pounds) won five matches on his way to the tournament title, as he won both his 100th match, becoming the third wrestler in UB history to reach 100 career wins, and then won his 103rd match in the finals, passing Josh States (1998-2002) for second-place in career wins at UB. He is now 10 wins behind Gary Cooper's (1998-2003) all-time mark of 113 wins.

Budd (133 pounds) picked up where he left off last season by winning five matches on the way to the championship, as he has now won 15 of his last 17 matches. The junior also won his 40th match with his win in the finals.

Sophomore Mike Ragusa (165 pounds) lost to Bloomsburg's Jim Bertulis, ranked 16th in the NWCA/InterMat/NWMA season-opening poll, in the finals and sophomore Mickey Moran lost to Bertulis in the semifinals to finish third in the bracket.

The tournament's wrestleback rounds were not completed, but a host of Bulls were on pace to place at the tournament, as junior John Cummings (157 pounds) lost his opening round match before storming back with four straight wins and junior Pat Lloyd (149 pounds) advanced to the quarterfinals before losing.

Sophomore Nate Rock and Ray Lamb were also still alive at 174 pounds before the wrestleback rounds were called.

Nov. 12, 2005 • Brockport, NY Oklahoma Gold Classic

BROCKPORT, NY - Senior Kyle Cerminara won his second title in as many tournaments, as he downed nationally-ranked Joe Dennis of Cleveland State, 6-0, to claim the 197-pound title at the Oklahoma Gold Classic on Saturday at SUNY Brockport's Tuttle Gymnasium.

Six other Bulls placed at the tournament, helping Buffalo to place fifth out of 11 teams at the tournament. Oklahoma took first, amassing 171 points while Pennsylvania, another perennial top 25 team, nipped on the Sooners' heels, finishing with 166 points. Army, Buffalo's rival in the New York State Collegiate Championships and Kent State, Buffalo's Mid-American Conference rival, finished in third and fourth, respectively.

Cerminara, who wrapped up the Slippy Rock Open title last Saturday, won four matches, pinning Brockport's Stephen Spiegleire in the first round before downing Kent State's Ben Rings, 10-4, in the quarterfinals and Ohio's Larry Richard, 7-5, in the semifinals.

Buffalo's 165-pounders had another notable day, as sophomore Mickey Moran lost the championship match on riding time to Oklahoma's Jarrod King. Moran earned a third period takedown to take a 2-1 lead, but King earned the escape to tie the score and win on riding time.

Moran won three matches on his way to the finals, beating Brown's Shawn Kitchner, 6-4, in the first round. In the quarterfinals, Moran earned an escape in the final 30 seconds against Army's Jon Anderson and was able to ride the clock out for a 10-9 win. He won in the semifinals by injury default to set up his showdown with King.

Sophomore Mike Ragusa added a fourth-place finish at 165 pounds, losing to Army's Jon Anderson, 6-4, in overtime, in the third-place match. Ragusa beat Cory Mairer of Kent State, 4-0, in the first round before losing to King, 5-3, in the quarterfinals. He rebounded with a 14-4 major decision win against Brockport's Omi Ortiz and then he won by default to enter the consolation finals.

Junior Mark Budd came away with a third-place finish, beating Brockport's Justin Kimball with a first-period pin in the first round, then took down Army's Frankie Baughan, 9-5, in the quarterfinals. He lost a 4-2 match to Ohio's Albert Madison, but rebounded in the consolation finals with a 5-2 win over Pennsylvania's Matt Eveleth.

Junior Pat Lloyd came away with a fifth-place finish, winning in the quarterfinals against Rutgers' Mike Ferrara, 3-2, in double overtime, winning on riding time before dropping two matches and then picking up the fifth-place match by forfeit.

Nov. 19, 2005 • Buffalo, NY Buffalo 44, Gardner-Webb 3

BUFFALO, NY - Buffalo started a quad-meet against Gardner-Webb and quickly took control with three straight first period pins, as freshman Louie Rubin began his collegiate career with a pin against Courtney Roberts at 50 seconds. Junior Mark Budd then pinned W.I.N. Magazine's preseason eighth-ranked wrestler Josh Pniewski in the second minute of his match for his 40th career win. Sophomore Dana Gingerich added another pin in 40 seconds against A.J. Renteria to give UB a commanding 18-0 lead. Moran added another pin at 165 pounds in the first period to help seal the win.

Also helping lead the charge were the Buffalo upperweights, as senior Garrett Hicks earned a major decision against Brandon Beach before fellow seniors Kyle Cerminara and Harold Sherrell each earned tech falls to clinch the 44-3 win.

Cerminara notched six takedowns to tie John Stutzman's (1995-98) mark of 135 career dual meet takedowns as he dominated Brent Blackwell in a 19-4 technical fall and Sherrell posted five near-falls in the first period to down Ricky Wilson, Jr.

With the win over Gardner-Webb, it was the first time that Buffalo had scored more than 40 points since a 41-3 win against James Madison on Dec. 14, 2003.

Nov. 19, 2005 • Buffalo, NY Buffalo 30, Bloomsburg 11

BUFFALO, NY -After dropping a 21-9 decision to Bloomsburg on Nov. 26, 2004 in the opening match of 2004-05, Buffalo avenged the loss as pins by Dana Gingerich and Mickey Moran helped lift Buffalo to a 30-11 win.

At 133 pounds, Mark Budd fell behind Rick Donald, 3-2, but fought back with an escape and two third-period takedowns, including one with 28 seconds left to take a 7-5 lead. He rode out the final seconds to take the 7-6 decision, as Donald earned a riding-time point. Gingerich gave Buffalo an even larger lift in the next match, as he battled Brad Forbes to a 1-1 stalemate through the first three periods and the sudden victory overtime period. In the first 30-second overtime period, though, Gingerich got Forbes on his back, earning a pin and lifting UB to a 9-5 lead.

After two Bloomsburg decisions helped the Huskies to an 11-9 lead, Moran delivered a big pin in the second period after delivering five takedowns in the first period against Jason Crawford to give the Bulls a 15-11 advantage. Sophomore Nate Rock gave Buffalo a crucial win at 174 pins, getting a takedown in the first overtime period to take a 6-4 sudden-victory decision from Frank Beasley, putting the Bulls up 18-11.

Garrett Hicks, who dropped an 8-3 decision to Nate Shirk in the 2004 dual meet, earned a 13-4 major decision against Shirk this time around, earning three takedowns to propel the win.

Kyle Cerminara earned his second straight technical fall by earning 12 points on four 3-point near falls in his match with Hasseman to clinch the win by earning five team points to give Buffalo a 27-11 lead.

In the final match of the meet, Harold Sherrell had a takedown and managed to hold on to down the NWCA/InterMat/NWMA's 17th-ranked wrestler, James Spaid, 2-1.

Nov. 19, 2005 • Buffalo, NY Buffalo 36, Findlay 0

BUFFALO, NY - In the final meet, the Bulls won the first three matches, including Mark Budd's 7-3 win against Division II's top-ranked Andy Uhl to take a 9-2 lead. After a loss, the Bulls rebounded as junior John Cummings recorded four near falls in one period to lead to a technical fall of Division II's second-ranked wrestler, Angelo Vettese to take a 14-2 team lead.

Moran and sophomore Mike Ragusa (174 pounds) followed with major decisions to give Buffalo a 22-2 lead. Garrett Hicks earned a decision before Kyle Cerminara scored 12 takedowns to down Division II's seventh-ranked Justin Tazzi, 25-10.

Harold Sherrell earned a win through disqualification in the last bout of the evening, as Findlay was penalized four points in the match for misconduct, leading to the 36-0 shutout, the first time UB has pitched a shutout since beating Syracuse, 47-0, in 2000.

Nov. 26, 2005 • Lock Haven, PA Mat Town USA Invitational

LOCK HAVEN, PA - There may have only been eight schools at the 30th Annual Mat Town USA Invitational, but the University at Buffalo grapplers still faced some stiff competition, as Buffalo posted wins against seven nationally-ranked wrestlers to finish in a tie for second after compiling 138.5 points. UB posted a meet-high four champions and had six grapplers reach the finals at Thomas Fieldhouse on Saturday.

Senior Kyle Cerminara (197 pounds) continued his path of domination en route to earning the Harris Lipetz Most Outstanding Wrestler honor, as he ran his current winning streak to 14 matches. Three others joined him with titles, as junior Mark Budd (133 pounds), sophomore Dana Gingerich (141 pounds) and senior Harold Sherrell (heavyweight) each defeated a nationally-ranked grappler en route to their championship.

Sophomore Mickey Moran (165 pounds) and senior Garrett Hicks (184 pounds) also reached the tournament's finals after going through a nationally-ranked grappler, helping the Bulls finish in a tie for second with Oregon, finishing behind only USA Today/NWCA/InterMat's 16th-ranked Indiana, which had 179 points, three champions and three runners-up to Buffalo grapplers.

Cerminara faced his biggest test of the young season as the 197-pound 2004 All-American ran up against Indiana's NWMA/InterMat/NWCA eighth-ranked Brady Richardson in the finals, passing with a 6-1 win.

Sherrell ran into W.I.N. Magazine's 19th-ranked Dave Herman of Indiana in the finals. He fell behind 2-0 after Herman earned a takedown, managed to get an escape to end the first period of the finals behind, 2-1. However, Sherrell wasn't done, as he leg split Herman and got the bulky wrestler to his back, earning the fall at 3:57, running his season-record to 11-2.

Budd earned the championship by getting a hard-fought 8-7 win against Indiana's Andrae Hernandez, who took a 4-0 first period lead on a takedown and a two-point near fall. Budd closed the gap with two takedowns and an escape to tie the score at five at the end of the period. An escape in the second period tied the score and Budd earned one more takedown in the third to clinch the win.

Budd beat Oregon's Justin Perch, ranked 13th in the WrestlingReport.com's rankings, 4-2, in the semifinals.

Gingerich (141 pounds) wrapped up his first collegiate title by earning a sudden victory takedown against Oregon's Skyler Woods, ranked 27th in the nation by WrestlingReport.com. Gingerich fell behind in the second period as Woods earned an escape, but Gingerich countered with an escape of his own in the third period before he earned the takedown in the first overtime to take the 3-1 decision.

2005-06 UNIVERSITY AT BUFFALO WRESTLING

Dec. 2-3, 2005 • Las Vegas, NV Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational

LAS VEGAS, NV - University at Buffalo wrestling assistant coach Jeff Catrabone said he wanted senior Kyle Cerminara to dominate on the road to becoming Buffalo's first Las Vegas Invitational champion Saturday at the Cashman Center.

That is exactly what the 197-pounder did, as he allowed Cornell's Jerry Rinaldi, ranked 10th in the NWCA/InterMat/NWMA poll, only three escapes while earning a 5-3 win in the championship.

"Overall, he dominated. He only gave up three escapes, so the match wasn't as close as the score," Catrabone said. "Kyle showed a lot of leadership facing some of the top guys in the country."

The win caps off a historic weekend for the 2004 All-American, as he also set a school-record with his 114th career win in the second round of the tournament against Cal. St. Fullerton's Chris Chambers on Friday night, passing Gary Cooper's mark of 113 career wins set from 1998-2003. The tournament title also stretches Cerminara's season-starting win streak to 19 matches, which is just five shy of John Stutzman's school-record of 24 straight wins, set in 1996-97.

Cerminara, ranked fifth in the NWCA/InterMat/NWMA poll, earned three takedowns to score a come-from-behind 8-6 win against North Carolina State's Ryan Goodman in the semifinals.

Cerminara's road to the title ran through three nationally-ranked wrestlers as he opened the tournament with a 5-3 win against WrestlingReport.com's 29th-ranked Mark Thompson of The Citadel. He followed his record-tying win with a dominating 9-0 performance against Chambers to earn the record, before beating the NWCA/InterMat/NWMA's 13th-ranked Jeff Foust of Missouri, 7-1, in the quarterfinals to conclude his action Friday.

Buffalo finished with 48.5 points en route to a best-ever finish of 16th out of the 52-team field. Buffalo finished in front of Wisconsin, ranked eighth in the USA Today/NWCA/InterMat poll, after the Badgers tallied 43.5 points. Buffalo also finished well in front of its fellow Mid-American Conference schools at the event, as Ohio (37th-14.0) and Eastern Michigan (42nd-12.5) also competed.

Junior Mark Budd (133 pounds), sophomore Mickey Moran (165 pounds) and senior Harold Sherrell (285 pounds) each made it to the round of 16 before losing their first match.

"Overall, we were disappointed in some matches," Catrabone said. "We felt we should have placed half our guys, but wrestling against some of the top guys in the nation showed us a lot. We know what we have to focus on. We have to keep our nose down and keep working hard to get better everyday."

Dec. 9, 2005 • Erie, PA Edinboro 20, Buffalo 13

ERIE, PA - It hasn't happened since 2002-03. Shawn Bunch ended up the losing end of a wrestling match to someone other than 2005 national champion Travis Lee of Cornell, as junior 133-pounder Mark Budd earned a sudden-victory, 6-4, decision to highlight the University at Buffalo's meet against nationally-ranked Edinboro at the War at the Shore on Friday night.

Edinboro did manage six wins as the USA Today/NWCA/InterMat's 19th-ranked Fighting Scots snuck away from the Erie Civic Center with a 20-13 win, even though the Bulls managed two wins against nationally-ranked wrestlers.

This is the first time in the school's Division I history that a wrestler has posted a win against a No. 1-ranked wrestler, as Budd improved to 19-3 on the season. He has won 29 of his last 34 matches.

Budd, ranked 14th in the Amateur Wrestling News and W.I.N Magazine polls, fell behind Bunch in the first period, as Bunch posted a takedown, but Budd earned an escape to make it 2-1 entering the second period. Bunch earned an early escape in the second period, but Budd responded with a takedown of his own to tie the score at three. Bunch escaped yet again, giving him a 4-3 lead heading into the final two minutes. Budd chose to start in the down position and earned an escape 30 seconds in to tie the score.

In the sudden victory overtime, Bunch took a shot and Budd countered, taking Bunch to the ground near the edge of the mat. Budd got both arms around Bunch's legs to seal the takedown with 15 seconds left on the clock.

Sophomore Mickey Moran also posted an impressive win against a top 20 grappler, as he took out the NWCA/InterMat/NWMA's 15th-ranked Deonte Penn, 7-4, at 165 pounds. Moran posted a first-period takedown and then added a reversal and a takedown to grab a 6-2 lead. He held on despite a third-period takedown by Penn in the final period to improve to 17-5.

Senior Kyle Cerminara posted his 20th straight victory with an impressive 12-4 major decision against Jim Gibson. Senior Harold Sherrell won his third straight 2-0 decision against an Edinboro wrestler, as he beat Koel Davia.

Edinboro got out to an early 4-0 lead as Ricky Deubel earned a major decision. After Budd's shocking win, Ricky McLaughlin (141 pounds), Las Vegas Invitational champion Gregor Gillespie (149 pounds) and Matt Hill (157 pounds) each won matches to give the Scots an 11-3 lead. Nationally-ranked grapplers Eric Ring and Alex Clemens added wins at 174 and 184 pounds, respectively.

Dec. 20, 2005 • Buffalo, NY Buffalo 35, Appalachian St. 0

BUFFALO, NY - Buffalo started out its home tri-meet with a 35-0 shutout of the Southern Conference's Appalachian State (2-3-1 overall), as junior John Cummings (157 pounds) led the way by earning the only fall of the match.

Freshman Louie Rubin (125) snapped a five-match losing streak by posting a 13-5 major decision against Adam Wilson, as he added a takedown with four seconds left to earn four team points for the Bulls.

Terreyl Williams gave Mark Budd (133), ranked 19th in the latest NWCA/InterMat/NWMA poll, as they wrestled to a 3-3 tie through regulation. After a scoreless first overtime, Budd chose the down position and earned an escape and a takedown to take control. He earned a 6-5 decision to win his 20th win of the season and 50th of his career.

Sophomore Dana Gingerich (141) fell behind Brian Pogel, 3-0 thanks to riding time, but Gingerich came out with a seven-point flurry in the final two minutes, coupling an escape, two takedowns and a two-point near fall to take a 7-4 decision. Junior Pat Lloyd (149) beat Nick Lukacs to extend Buffalo's lead to 13-0 with a 5-3 decision.

Cummings (157) followed with a pin to extend the lead to 19-0, as he earned the fall against Ken Kepley at the 2:31 mark. Sophomore Mickey Moran (165) posted a 3-1 win against William Houghton to extend the lead to 22-0. Sophomore Mike Ragusa (174) clinched the meet with a 3-1 win against Neal Martin as he won his 15th match of the season.

Garrett Hicks (184) posted four team points on the strength of an 11-0 decision against Aaron Barnette for his 50th career win. Cerminara (197) once again dominated en route to his 21st straight victory, posting seven takedowns in a 17-4 major decision against Josh Carroll.

In the final match of the meet, senior Harold Sherrell (heavyweight) fell behind as David Hazell earned a reversal in the second period. However, Sherrell countered with a reversal and a three-point near fall as time expired in the period to clinch the Bulls' second shutout of the season with an 8-2 win.

Dec. 20, 2005 • Buffalo, NY Buffalo 34, Mercyhurst 3

BUFFALO, NY - In the second meet, after the Lakers (4-5 overall) won the first match at 125 pounds, but Mark Budd tied the meet for the Bulls with an 8-3 win against Lenny Calhoun at 133, setting off nine straight Bulls wins.

Dana Gingerich responded to a third period three-point flurry by J.J. Zanetta with a reversal to seal a 14-6 major decision. Lloyd posted a 6-2 win against Brian Pogel to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead.

John Cummings once again delivered the big blow, posting a fall with five seconds left in his match with Will Tedder, ranked sixth in Division II. After falling behind 2-0 in the first period, Cummings worked back into the match by earning two takedowns. He finally got Tedder on his back and worked for the pin as time neared expiration.

Mickey Moran followed with a defeat of Division II's third-ranked Zach Schaefer at 165 pounds, winning 5-3 for his 19th win of the season, giving Buffalo a 19-3 lead. Mike Ragusa posted a 6-2 over Hudson Harrison for his 16th win at 174 pounds. Garrett Hicks followed with a major decision, posting an 11-3 win against Trevor Gallo.

Kyle Cerminara posted his 22nd straight win with an 8-2 win against Paul Bergman. Cerminara is just two wins shy of John Stutzman's (1995-96) school record of 24 straight wins.

Harold Sherrell finished off the meet with a 17-0 technical fall of Nick Marcellino, posting five three-point near falls in the first period to seal the win.

Dec. 30, 2005 • Buffalo, NY Third Annual UB Open

BUFFALO, NY - Senior Kyle Cerminara did everything within his power to break John Stutzman's (1996-97) record of 24 straight victories before 2006 ran in, but he was only able to tie the record while picking up his record third UB Open championship at the third annual event at Alumni Arena on Friday.

Five other Bulls also claimed championships and in all, 16 Buffalo wrestlers placed at the event, with at least one placing in all 10 weight classes to cap off the successful day.

Cerminara, who actually has won 32 matches in a row dating back to his Niagara and UB Open championships while redshirting in 2004, has wrestled only 24 matches against NCAA opponents this season, making his official record 24-0, despite wrestling 26 matches this season. The 197-pounder easily wrapped up his third UB Open title by pinning Nassau Community College's Joe Scioli, ranked seventh in the latest Junior College poll, in 51 seconds.

Junior Mark Budd won his second straight UB Open title at 133 pounds and third tournament of the year as he beat Maryland's Steven Bell, wrestling unattached, 5-3, earning a sudden-victory takedown to clinch the win. Budd also beat two Junior College wrestlers during the tournament.

Senior Garrett Hicks posted a perfect 4-0 mark in the five-man 184 pound weight class to also win his second straight title. Hicks posted two pins and a technical fall en route to the title, clinching first place with a 14-3 major decision against freshman Ricky Scott (Walden, NY/Valley Central), who went 2-2 wrestling unattached to place third.

Junior Pat Lloyd also picked up his second UB Open title at 149 pounds, as he downed Edinboro's Joe Backmore, 13-5, in the finals. Lloyd won a thrilling 5-4 decision in the semifinals against Mount Union's Sean Connelly, coming back from a 4-2 deficit by earning a takedown with 12 seconds left to tie the score than gaining a riding time point as time expired. He also posted a pin of Slippery Rock's Chuck Wiltout in the first round.

Senior Harold Sherrell (heavyweight) and sophomore Mickey Moran (165 pounds) each picked up their first UB Open titles. Sherrell posted a perfect 4-0 mark at heavyweight, as he earned the title after teammate Greg Thomas, wrestling unattached, defaulted the championship match after winning his first three matches. Sherrell posted a 17-0 technical fall in the first round against Niagara Community's Colin Thompson before earning a 5-2 decision against Slippery Rock's Matthew Buschalder and a 5-1 decision against Nebraska's Stefan Tighe, wrestling unattached.

Moran beat three JuCo wrestlers, including a 6-1 decision against Nassau Community's Mike Vingo, ranked first in the nation, in the finals. His posted two falls and also had a 6-2 decision against Michigan's Dario Mainella in the semifinals.

Junior John Cummings (157 pounds) posted a second place finish, losing in the finals to Drew Schafer, 6-2. Still, Cummings record improved to 13-10, after his 3-1 performance at the tournament.
